

GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

LifeShield Health Co. & SYRONA

Effective Date: August 1, 2026

Version 2.0

NOTICE OF TERMS, PRIVATE ASSOCIATION, MINISTRY RELATIONSHIP, MEMBERSHIP CONDITIONS, AND RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

These General Terms & Conditions ("Terms") govern access to and participation in the websites, membership programs, content, communications, services, benefits, provisions, educational materials, consultations, events, and other activities conducted under LifeShield Health Co., SYRONA, +SYRONA, or related names operated under their authority.

These Terms are intended to state plainly the nature of the associations, define the relationships among the relevant organizations and their members, establish the conditions of voluntary participation, preserve the private and ecclesiastical character of the ministry and its membership activities, protect the rights of all parties, and provide an orderly framework for resolving misunderstandings or disputes.

No provision of these Terms shall be construed as an intentional surrender of any natural, constitutional, ecclesiastical, contractual, common-law, equitable, statutory, property, privacy, associational, religious, or other right, defense, protection, privilege, immunity, remedy, or jurisdictional objection held by LifeShield Health Co., SYRONA, or any of their respective members, ministers, managers, trustees, officers, fiduciaries, agents, associates, or affiliates.

I. ORGANIZATIONAL IDENTITY AND RELATIONSHIP

1. LifeShield Health Co.

LifeShield Health Co. is an unincorporated nonprofit religious and health ministry association organized around spiritual fellowship, health education, natural living, research, personal development, service, stewardship, voluntary association, and related ministry purposes.

LifeShield Health Co. serves as the underlying ministry from which SYRONA's private membership activities arise.

LifeShield Health Co. may establish, operate, sponsor, administer, recognize, or work through ministries, private membership associations, auxiliaries, fellowships, assemblies, programs, projects, fiduciaries, contractual service providers, and other organizational structures consistent with its mission.

2. SYRONA

SYRONA, including the names SYRONA, +SYRONA, and Syrona, is the private membership arm and ministry auxiliary of LifeShield Health Co.

SYRONA exists to administer private membership activities of the ministry, including member education, health and wellness programs, research, fellowship, communications, member services, membership benefits, and the procurement and distribution of complimentary provisions for members.

SYRONA operates through a voluntary Private Membership Association relationship between the association and those persons who knowingly choose to become members.

SYRONA is not intended to exist independently from the fundamental mission, principles, and ministry purposes of LifeShield Health Co., although SYRONA may maintain its own membership agreements, records, programs, intellectual property, administrative procedures, accounts, fiduciary relationships, or other operational functions.

References within these Terms to "the Ministry" may include LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA collectively where the context permits.

3. Separate Legal and Contractual Entities

LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA may contract with limited liability companies, corporations, fiduciaries, suppliers, processors, manufacturers, distributors, logistics providers, intellectual-property holders, administrative entities, or other persons or organizations in furtherance of ministry operations.

Some such entities may use names, trademarks, branding, words, or designations that resemble LifeShield, SYRONA, or names used by the Ministry.

Similarity of name, branding, ownership, management, personnel, contractual relationship, or purpose does not, by itself, merge separate entities or make one entity legally responsible for the obligations of another.

Any limited liability company, corporation, trust, partnership, fiduciary entity, or other separately constituted organization associated or contracted with LifeShield Health Co. or SYRONA shall be treated as a separate entity according to its actual organizational and contractual status.

No affiliated or contracted entity shall be presumed to be the alter ego, successor, partner, joint venturer, principal, agent, employer, employee, or legal equivalent of LifeShield Health Co. or SYRONA merely because:

- it performs services for the Ministry;
- it receives or disburses funds on behalf of the Ministry;
- it procures or manufactures provisions for members;
- it shares managers, officers, members, contractors, or beneficial relationships;
- it uses similar branding or names;
- it licenses intellectual property to or from the Ministry;
- it provides administrative or logistical support; or
- it otherwise participates in Ministry operations.

An agency, fiduciary, partnership, joint venture, or other legal relationship exists only to the extent actually created by the governing agreement or applicable law.

The liabilities, obligations, property, rights, accounts, contracts, and activities of each separate organization remain its own except where expressly agreed otherwise.

4. Fiduciaries and Operational Providers

The Ministry may appoint or contract with one or more entities to assist with financial, administrative, payment-processing, procurement, manufacturing support, sourcing, warehousing, fulfillment, shipping, information-technology, intellectual-property, or other operational functions.

SYRONA may itself develop, formulate, manufacture, produce, control, own, commission, or otherwise make available exclusive and proprietary supplements, products, formulations, and Complimentary Member Provisions. The use of suppliers, manufacturers, laboratories, processors, contractors, or other operational providers in connection with any stage of development, sourcing, manufacturing, production, packaging, fulfillment, or distribution does not diminish SYRONA's role in developing, controlling, providing, or maintaining its own exclusive and proprietary offerings where applicable.

The use of such providers does not change the underlying nature of the relationship between SYRONA and its members, nor does it transfer the identity, proprietary interests, membership relationship, or Ministry functions of SYRONA to any outside provider.

A payment processor processing a membership payment, a manufacturer or supplier assisting in the production of a Complimentary Member Provision, or a logistics provider delivering that provision does not thereby become SYRONA, LifeShield Health Co., or the organization from which membership originates.

II. PRIVATE MEMBERSHIP STRUCTURE

5. SYRONA as a Private Membership Association

SYRONA operates as a voluntary Private Membership Association ("PMA") within the LifeShield Health Co. ministry.

Membership is a consensual associational relationship entered into by individuals who choose to participate in the activities, services, benefits, education, fellowship, research, programs, and provisions made available through the association.

Membership is governed by these Terms, the applicable Private Membership Agreement, and any program-specific terms affirmatively accepted by the member.

6. Membership, Not Retail Purchase of Products

SYRONA's membership model is fundamentally different from an ordinary retail transaction.

SYRONA does not operate its member program by selling its complimentary member products individually to members as retail merchandise.

Amounts paid through the SYRONA membership program are paid in connection with membership, including the rights, access, services, programs, benefits, credits, privileges, education, resources, and other membership opportunities associated with the applicable membership level.

Tangible products provided through the membership program are complimentary member provisions and benefits furnished in connection with membership.

A member does not pay a separate retail purchase price to SYRONA for a complimentary member provision merely because a particular membership level, membership credit, benefit, or entitlement allows the member to request or receive that provision.

The existence of a stated membership amount does not transform a complimentary member provision into separately sold retail merchandise.

The availability of different membership levels, credits, benefits, quantities, or provisions likewise does not alter the fundamental membership relationship.

7. Membership Payments

Payments made to obtain or maintain SYRONA membership may include membership dues, membership contributions, membership subscriptions, membership-package amounts, or other membership-related payments according to the applicable program.

Those payments support the membership association and provide the member access to the benefits associated with the membership level selected.

Membership benefits may include, without limitation:

- access to private educational information;
- health and wellness resources;
- member communications;
- consultations or coaching where offered;
- private programs;
- events or fellowship opportunities;
- research and educational resources;
- member pricing or benefits from third parties where applicable;
- membership credits;
- access to complimentary provisions;
- fulfillment of complimentary member provisions;
- private community benefits; and
- other services or opportunities established by the association.

The exact benefits associated with each membership level may change prospectively as the Ministry develops its programs.

8. Complimentary Member Provisions

Products distributed through the SYRONA membership program are referred to in these Terms as Member Provisions, Complimentary Provisions, or Complimentary Member Provisions.

A Complimentary Member Provision may include a nutritional supplement, mineral product, topical preparation, personal-care product, educational material, wellness product, accessory, or other tangible item made available as a membership benefit.

The fact that different membership levels may permit different quantities or types of provisions does not, by itself, convert those provisions into separately sold products.

Where a membership grants credits or entitlements that may be redeemed for available provisions, those credits represent membership benefits within the association.

They are not cash, stored monetary value, negotiable instruments, securities, bank deposits, or property redeemable for cash unless expressly stated otherwise.

9. No Separate Product Purchase Price

Unless SYRONA expressly establishes a separate public retail transaction outside its membership model, no portion of a SYRONA membership payment shall be represented by these Terms as a separately stated retail purchase price for a Complimentary Member Provision.

Shipping, handling, expedited fulfillment, insurance, international delivery, duties, taxes, or similar logistical amounts may nevertheless be separately charged when applicable.

Such charges compensate for the applicable logistical service or expense and do not convert the underlying Complimentary Member Provision into separately sold retail merchandise.

10. Substance of the Membership Relationship

The relationship between SYRONA and its members shall be understood according to the membership structure actually established and administered by the association.

Nothing in these Terms is intended to create a sham transaction, disguise a retail sale, evade a lawful obligation, misstate the nature of a transaction, or assign a label contrary to the actual relationship between the parties.

The Ministry expressly affirms that its PMA structure, membership services, membership benefits, and Complimentary Member Provision model are intended to be genuine and substantive components of its ministry operation.

III. VOLUNTARY ASSOCIATION

11. Freedom of Association

Membership in SYRONA is voluntary.

No person is compelled to become a member.

A person choosing to participate in member-only activities voluntarily enters into a private associational relationship governed by the terms applicable to that membership.

The association likewise retains freedom of association and may determine eligibility for continued participation consistent with its governing principles, agreements, and lawful obligations.

12. Becoming a Member

A person becomes a member by placing an order for a 30-day SYRONA Private Membership Association membership at the membership level identified in the applicable shop or store listing.

Each membership level carries the specific services, benefits, privileges, credits, access, and Complimentary Member Provisions associated with that membership level, as described in the applicable listing and in other applicable portions of the SYRONA.org website.

By placing an order and completing checkout, the person expressly orders the identified 30-day PMA membership and becomes a member of SYRONA for the applicable membership period upon successful receipt or authorization of the required membership payment.

Completion of the order and checkout process constitutes the member's acceptance of the membership being ordered, the benefits and provisions associated with that membership level, these General Terms & Conditions, the Private Membership Agreement, and all other policies expressly incorporated into the membership relationship.

The member's completed order and corresponding electronic transaction records may be retained as evidence of membership, acceptance, and the terms governing the membership ordered.

13. Membership Required for Member Provisions

Complimentary Member Provisions made available through the SYRONA PMA are benefits of membership.

An individual who does not wish to participate in the PMA shall not be required to enter the membership relationship.

Availability of any product, service, or transaction outside the PMA, if any, is determined separately by the applicable organization.

14. Membership Does Not Create Ownership

Membership does not confer ownership of LifeShield Health Co., SYRONA, Ministry property, intellectual property, bank accounts, inventory, research, trademarks, confidential information, or organizational assets.

Membership likewise does not create authority to act on behalf of the Ministry unless such authority is expressly delegated.

IV. FOUNDATIONAL PRINCIPLES

15. Natural Rights and Human Dignity

LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA affirm that the fundamental rights of human beings are inherent and do not originate merely as grants, permissions, privileges, licenses, or favors from government.

We understand those rights as arising from the Creator, Nature, Natural Law, and the inherent dignity of the individual.

The Declaration of Independence expresses this principle through its recognition that all people are created equal, are endowed by their Creator with unalienable rights, and establish government for the purpose of securing those rights.

These principles form part of the philosophical and ecclesiastical foundation of the Ministry.

16. Sovereignty of the Individual

LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA formally recognize the natural sovereignty of the individual.

The Ministry understands sovereignty, at the individual level, as the inherent dignity, liberty, conscience, self-determination, personal responsibility, and natural rights possessed by each living person by virtue of existence and not merely through permission, privilege, status, office, or grant from another human institution.

The individual remains the foundational unit of human liberty and the smallest minority whose inherent rights must be recognized and respected.

Collective institutions, governments, associations, corporations, majorities, and other bodies are composed of, created by, or operate through individuals and do not thereby obtain an inherent right to extinguish or disregard the natural rights retained by any peaceful individual.

The sovereignty of the individual exists together with responsibility and respect for the equal natural rights of others.

Within the Ministry, every office, title, responsibility, and position of leadership exists in service to the mission and to the people who participate in it, consistent with the principles of Natural Law, voluntary association, individual dignity, and personal sovereignty.

17. Natural Law

For purposes of our internal philosophy and ecclesiastical understanding, Natural Law encompasses foundational principles of justice, responsibility, conscience, reciprocity, and human dignity understood through reason, experience, Nature, and our understanding of the Creator.

Among these principles are:

human life should be respected;

fraud and coercion should be rejected;

agreements freely made should be honored;

private property should not be wrongfully taken or destroyed;

peaceful people should be free to associate;

people should be free to decline association;

human beings possess the right of conscience;

no person should deliberately violate the equal rights of another; and remedies for wrongdoing should pursue restoration, justice, accountability, and protection rather than domination.

18. Consent

Consent is foundational to private association.

We distinguish genuine consent from mere submission produced by fraud, material misrepresentation, unlawful coercion, incapacity, or duress.

Within private relationships, the Ministry favors voluntary agreement, informed participation, honorable dealing, and peaceful resolution.

19. Ninth Amendment and Retained Rights

The Ministry expressly affirms the principle embodied in the Ninth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States:

"The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people."

LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA affirm and reserve all natural, constitutional, contractual, statutory, common-law, equitable, ecclesiastical, property, privacy, associational, and other rights possessed by the Ministry and its members.

The Ninth Amendment is emphasized not because it is the sole constitutional protection upon which the Ministry relies, but because it expressly recognizes the enduring principle that the people's rights are not limited to those specifically enumerated in the Constitution. The enumeration of certain rights shall never be construed to deny, diminish, disparage, or surrender the many other rights retained by the people under Natural Law, the common law, constitutional principles, or other applicable sources of liberty.

Accordingly, the identification of particular rights within these Terms is illustrative rather than exhaustive, and nothing contained herein shall be construed to waive, limit, or diminish any other right retained by the Ministry or its members.

20. Constitutional Protections

LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA affirm and reserve the benefit of every constitutional protection afforded to the people under the Constitution of the United States and applicable state constitutions.

Nothing contained in these Terms shall be construed as limiting the Ministry's reliance upon any particular constitutional provision, nor shall the specific discussion of one constitutional protection be interpreted as diminishing the applicability, importance, or continued reservation of any other constitutional protection.

Accordingly, the Ministry expressly affirms, reserves, and may invoke, whenever appropriate, the protections reflected throughout the Constitution, including but not limited to the freedoms of religion, speech, press, peaceful assembly, petition, association, conscience, due process of law, equal protection of the laws, security in one's person, house, papers, effects, and property, protection against unreasonable searches and seizures, preservation of private property rights, trial by an impartial jury where applicable, and all other constitutional rights, privileges, immunities, and protections retained by the people.

The Ministry further reserves the right to assert any constitutional protection, whether specifically referenced in these Terms or not, whenever necessary to preserve the liberties, property, autonomy, or lawful interests of the Ministry or its members.

21. Separation of Ecclesiastical and Secular Authority

LifeShield Health Co. is a ministry.

SYRONA functions as the private membership arm and ministry auxiliary through which substantial portions of the Ministry's health, wellness, educational, fellowship, and member-benefit activities are conducted.

The Ministry affirms a meaningful distinction between ecclesiastical affairs and secular government.

Questions of theology, doctrine, spiritual teaching, internal ecclesiastical governance, religious fellowship, qualifications for ministry, sincerely held religious belief, and the spiritual purposes of the association are matters entrusted to the Ministry and its members to the fullest extent protected by Natural Law, freedom of conscience, freedom of association, religious liberty, and applicable constitutional protections.

22. Freedom of Conscience

No member is required to surrender conscience as a condition of membership.

The Ministry likewise shall not be compelled voluntarily to abandon its sincerely held principles merely because another person, organization, political majority, private institution, or public official disagrees with them.

We affirm peaceful coexistence among people holding differing theological, philosophical, political, scientific, or personal views.

V. SPIRITUAL AND MINISTRY FOUNDATION

23. Truth, Love, and the Ministry's Spiritual Foundation

LifeShield Health Co. is founded upon a spiritual understanding of Truth, Love, Natural Law, human freedom, responsibility, stewardship, service, fellowship, health, and reconciliation with the Creator.

The Ministry understands Truth and Love as foundational principles of divine and natural order, expressed through integrity, wisdom, compassion, liberty, responsibility, healing, service, peace, justice, and respect for the inherent dignity of every individual.

The Ministry understands human beings as possessing inherent dignity and spiritual significance that precede political institutions.

24. Ministry Principles

The Ministry endeavors to conduct itself according to principles including:

- Truth;
- Love;
- Peace;
- Compassion;
- Honor;
- Integrity;
- Service;
- Liberty;
- Personal responsibility;
- Informed consent;
- Stewardship;
- Justice;
- Reconciliation;

- Wisdom;
- Courage;
- Healthy boundaries; and
- Respect for the equal dignity and inherent rights of every individual.

The Ministry seeks to extend grace, patience, forgiveness, compassion, and goodwill wherever reasonably possible, recognizing that these virtues promote healing, reconciliation, and human flourishing.

At the same time, the Ministry recognizes that genuine love and wisdom do not require enabling ongoing abuse, deception, coercion, exploitation, violence, or repeated violations of the rights, dignity, property, or lawful interests of another.

Accordingly, the Ministry affirms that establishing healthy boundaries, exercising sound judgment, protecting oneself and others from continuing harm, and pursuing appropriate remedies when necessary are consistent with the principles of Truth, Love, Natural Law, justice, stewardship, and responsible self-governance.

The Ministry therefore strives to respond to conflict with compassion before retaliation, understanding before condemnation, reconciliation before division, and peace before force, while recognizing that peace is most enduring when joined with justice, accountability, and respect for the equal rights of all people.

The principles reflected in 1 Peter 3:8–13, including compassion, courtesy, truthfulness, peace, and refusing to return evil for evil, remain important expressions of this ethic and are understood together with the broader principles of wisdom, stewardship, accountability, and the responsible protection of human dignity and natural rights.

25. Spiritual and Conscientious Foundation

The Ministry's spiritual, philosophical, and conscientious principles are sincerely held and form an integral part of its identity, purpose, mission, internal governance, fellowship, educational activities, and private association.

LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA reserve their full freedom of conscience, spiritual expression, association, belief, teaching, inquiry, and ministry, together with every natural, constitutional, ecclesiastical, contractual, statutory, common-law, and other protection applicable to those activities.

Public visibility, public communication, educational outreach, or interaction with persons or entities outside the Ministry shall not be interpreted as abandonment, dilution, or surrender of the spiritual, ecclesiastical, associational, ministerial, or private nature of activities that are otherwise spiritual, ecclesiastical, associational, ministerial, or private.

VI. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

26. General Reservation

LifeShield Health Co., SYRONA, and their respective members, ministers, officers, trustees, managers, agents, fiduciaries, and authorized representatives perpetually reserve every natural, constitutional, ecclesiastical, contractual, common-law, equitable, statutory, property, privacy, associational, religious, and other right, defense, remedy, objection, privilege, immunity, liberty, protection, and property interest under all circumstances.

Such reservation applies whether or not a particular right, defense, remedy, objection, privilege, immunity, liberty, protection, or property interest is expressly identified in these Terms, asserted at a particular time, or anticipated when these Terms were drafted.

Nothing contained in these Terms shall be construed as a waiver, surrender, abandonment, forfeiture, extinguishment, diminishment, or relinquishment of any such right, defense, remedy, objection, privilege, immunity, liberty, protection, or property interest.

27. No Waiver or Surrender of Rights

LifeShield Health Co., SYRONA, and their respective members and representatives perpetually reserve all of their inherent, natural, constitutional, ecclesiastical, contractual, common-law, equitable, statutory, property, privacy, associational, religious, and other rights.

No right shall be deemed waived, surrendered, abandoned, forfeited, extinguished, or diminished by action, inaction, silence, delay, omission, mistake, misunderstanding, inadvertence, lack of knowledge, failure to assert the right immediately, or any other circumstance.

No typographical error, formatting choice, capitalization, punctuation, omission, clerical mistake, misunderstanding, delay, or failure to anticipate a particular circumstance shall operate as a surrender, abandonment, or waiver of any right.

The Ministry's continuing reservation of rights applies whether the particular right is expressly identified in these Terms or not.

28. Enumeration Is Not Limitation

The identification of particular rights in these Terms is illustrative and protective rather than exhaustive.

The enumeration of some rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the applicable person or association.

VII. ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS

29. Website Access

Public access to a Ministry website constitutes notice that use of the website is subject to applicable website rules and intellectual-property restrictions.

Public viewing alone shall not be relied upon as the sole basis for imposing material membership obligations that require affirmative assent.

30. Acceptance Through Membership Order and Checkout

Every order placed through a SYRONA shop, store, membership page, checkout system, or other authorized ordering platform constitutes an order for a 30-day SYRONA Private Membership Association membership at the membership level identified in the applicable listing.

By submitting and completing that order, the person affirmatively requests and purchases the specified 30-day PMA membership together with the services, benefits, privileges, credits, access, and Complimentary Member Provisions associated with that membership level.

Completion of the order and checkout process constitutes acceptance of the membership being ordered and automatic acceptance of these General Terms & Conditions, the Private Membership Agreement, the Shipping & Fulfillment Policy, the Refund & Guarantee Policy, the Privacy Notice, and any other terms or policies expressly made applicable to that membership or transaction.

No additional signature, checkbox, separate acknowledgment, or additional act of acceptance is required beyond the member's voluntary placement and completion of the membership order.

The act of completing checkout itself constitutes the member's manifestation of assent to the terms governing the membership that the person has chosen to order.

31. Incorporated Agreements

By placing and completing an order for a SYRONA 30-day PMA membership, the member accepts and agrees to the governing documents applicable to that membership, including:

Private Membership Agreement

Shipping & Fulfillment Policy

Refund & Guarantee Policy

Privacy Notice

and any transaction-specific or program-specific agreement expressly identified as applicable to the membership or transaction.

These documents are incorporated into the membership relationship by reference and form part of the agreement entered into through completion of the membership order.

VIII. MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS AND SERVICES

32. Nature of Membership Benefits

SYRONA membership may provide access to a combination of tangible and intangible benefits.

No single benefit necessarily represents the entire value of a membership.

Membership value may arise from private association itself, education, research, information, community, programs, services, consultations, events, resources, credits, access rights, and Complimentary Member Provisions collectively.

33. Membership Levels

SYRONA may establish different levels of membership.

Different levels may include different durations, services, access, benefits, credits, quantities of Complimentary Member Provisions, or other privileges.

Membership levels and benefits may be modified prospectively.

Benefits already earned or obligations already incurred will be administered according to the applicable agreement.

34. Membership Credits

Where SYRONA uses membership credits, credits function as internal mechanisms for administering membership benefits.

Credits have no cash value except where expressly stated otherwise.

Credits do not constitute currency, deposits, securities, stored monetary value, negotiable instruments, or a promise by SYRONA to redeem them for cash.

35. Member Responsibility

Each member is responsible for maintaining accurate membership and contact information and for protecting account credentials.

Membership may not be used for fraudulent activity, unauthorized resale schemes, impersonation, abuse of association resources, or deliberate interference with Ministry operations.

IX. HEALTH EDUCATION AND WELLNESS INFORMATION

36. Educational and Ministerial Purpose

LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA may provide information concerning nutrition, supplements, herbs, minerals, wellness, lifestyle, traditional naturopathy, exercise, personal development, frequency-based practices, natural health concepts, spirituality, research, and related subjects.

Unless expressly provided by an appropriately licensed professional acting within the identified scope of that license, such information is offered for educational, informational, ministerial, research, or personal-development purposes.

37. No Medical Diagnosis or Treatment

Ministry content is not intended to substitute for individualized medical diagnosis, emergency care, or treatment from an appropriately qualified healthcare professional.

Members remain responsible for their own healthcare decisions.

In the event of a medical emergency, seek appropriate emergency medical care.

38. FDA Disclaimer

Where applicable to statements concerning a dietary supplement:

These statements have not been evaluated by the Food and Drug Administration. This product is not intended to diagnose, treat, cure, or prevent any disease.

39. Individual Circumstances

Bodies and circumstances differ.

Pregnancy, nursing, medications, allergies, sensitivities, age, medical conditions, surgical procedures, and other circumstances may affect whether a particular product or wellness practice is appropriate.

Members should obtain appropriate individualized professional guidance when circumstances warrant it.

40. Professional and Educational Titles

Academic, ecclesiastical, ministerial, educational, traditional, coaching, naturopathic, herbal, or privately issued credentials shall be understood according to their actual nature.

A person using the title "Doctor" based upon an earned doctoral degree outside the licensed practice of medicine is not thereby representing that the person is a licensed physician.

A title such as Naturopathic Practitioner, Master Herbalist, Health Coach, Wellness Educator, Minister, or similar designation shall not be interpreted as a representation that the holder possesses a government-issued license unless such licensure is expressly identified.

41. No Guaranteed Health Result

No testimony, personal experience, case history, observation, educational statement, research discussion, or member report guarantees that another person will obtain the same result.

Individual results vary.

X. COMPLIMENTARY MEMBER PROVISIONS

42. Description of Provisions

SYRONA endeavors to describe Complimentary Member Provisions accurately.

Packaging, labels, sourcing, container design, appearance, nonmaterial formulation characteristics, manufacturing vendors, or other details may change where appropriate.

A material change to the nature of a provision will not knowingly be concealed or misrepresented.

43. Availability

Availability of any particular Complimentary Member Provision is subject to inventory, manufacturing, supply, logistical conditions, and the applicable membership program.

Where a provision becomes temporarily unavailable, SYRONA may delay fulfillment, offer an appropriate alternative where permitted by the applicable program, restore the corresponding membership benefit or credit, or provide another reasonable remedy.

44. Personal Use

Unless otherwise authorized, Complimentary Member Provisions furnished through ordinary consumer membership are intended for personal, household, or permitted member use rather than unauthorized commercial resale.

Separate affiliate, wholesale, practitioner, distributor, or promotional arrangements may be governed by additional agreements.

XI. PAYMENTS AND MEMBERSHIP PROCESSING

45. Membership Payments

Membership payments become due according to the membership level selected.

A membership is not fully activated until required payment has been successfully received or authorized.

46. Payment Processors

Payments may be processed by independent third-party processors or fiduciaries.

Their participation does not transform them into the provider of the underlying membership.

Processor terms may separately govern the technical payment transaction.

47. Errors

SYRONA may correct typographical, mathematical, technical, membership-level, credit, shipping, or processing errors.

Where correction materially changes the amount a member would be required to pay, the member will be given an opportunity to accept the correction or cancel the affected transaction where appropriate.

48. Fraud

SYRONA may suspend or reject enrollment, fulfillment, or account access where reasonably necessary to investigate suspected payment fraud, identity theft, account compromise, unauthorized transactions, abuse, or other materially deceptive conduct.

XII. SHIPPING AND FULFILLMENT

49. Fulfillment

SYRONA endeavors to fulfill Complimentary Member Provisions reasonably and efficiently.

Processing and delivery estimates are estimates unless expressly identified as guaranteed.

Inventory, manufacturing, supply chains, weather, holidays, carrier operations, customs, payment review, force majeure, and other circumstances may affect timing.

50. Shipping Charges

Membership may include some or all ordinary shipping costs depending upon the membership program.

Additional shipping, international freight, special handling, expedited delivery, insurance, reshipment, customs-related costs, or unusual delivery requirements may create additional charges.

Payment of a shipping charge is payment for transportation or related logistics and does not constitute a retail purchase price for the Complimentary Member Provision being shipped.

51. Address Responsibility

Members are responsible for providing accurate and complete delivery information.

Once a shipment enters a carrier network, SYRONA may be unable to modify the delivery address.

52. Carrier Handling

Carriers are independent service providers.

After a package enters carrier possession, circumstances may arise beyond SYRONA's immediate physical control.

SYRONA will reasonably assist members with available tracking, carrier claims, damaged shipments, and similar problems according to the Shipping & Fulfillment Policy.

53. International Shipments

For international shipments, the recipient is responsible for determining whether the applicable provisions may lawfully be imported into the destination jurisdiction.

The recipient is responsible for duties, customs assessments, import restrictions, permits, or similar obligations imposed upon the recipient or shipment.

XIII. REFUNDS, GUARANTEES, AND MEMBERSHIP CANCELLATION

54. Membership Guarantee

Where SYRONA expressly offers a thirty-day membership guarantee, the guarantee applies to the qualifying membership payment according to the terms stated in the Refund & Guarantee Policy.

The guarantee concerns the qualifying membership relationship and is not dependent upon return of Complimentary Member Provisions unless expressly required by the applicable policy.

55. Complimentary Provisions Need Not Be Returned Unless Directed

Where the applicable guarantee permits a member to retain Complimentary Member Provisions after cancellation, those provisions remain with the member.

Members shall not send products or other materials back to SYRONA unless return instructions are provided.

56. Refund Limits

Any limits applicable to the amount, membership level, transaction type, promotion, bulk enrollment, special offering, or eligibility period for a refund shall be governed by the Refund & Guarantee Policy in effect for that transaction.

57. Processing

Approved refunds are ordinarily returned through the original payment method where practicable.

Processing time after issuance may depend upon the applicable bank, card issuer, or payment processor.

XIV. CHARGEBACKS AND PAYMENT DISPUTES

58. Direct Resolution

A member who believes a billing or membership error occurred should contact SYRONA promptly so that the matter may be investigated and resolved.

59. Good-Faith Payment Disputes

A legitimate payment dispute made in good faith will not be treated as fraud merely because SYRONA disagrees with the member's position.

60. Fraudulent Chargebacks

Knowingly submitting materially false information to obtain a reversal of a valid membership payment after receiving the membership or its benefits may constitute fraud.

SYRONA reserves every lawful remedy for intentional chargeback fraud, including recovery of actual losses, processing costs, fees where recoverable, civil remedies, and referral of suspected criminal conduct to appropriate authorities where warranted.

XV. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

61. Ministry Property

Unless otherwise stated, Ministry websites, writings, graphics, photographs, videos, recordings, presentations, research compilations, educational materials, product names, formulas where proprietary, trademarks, logos, trade dress, designs, course materials, membership materials, and original content belong to LifeShield Health Co., SYRONA, an affiliated rights holder, or the applicable licensor.

Access does not transfer ownership.

62. Personal Use

Materials made available for member use may be used for private, personal, educational, or other authorized purposes according to the applicable agreement.

Unauthorized reproduction, commercial exploitation, impersonation, sale, sublicensing, or distribution is prohibited.

Nothing herein eliminates rights that applicable law expressly grants to another party.

63. Confidential Material

Information designated confidential, proprietary, trade secret, member-only, private, or otherwise restricted shall not knowingly be disclosed outside its authorized audience without permission except where disclosure is lawfully required.

XVI. PRIVACY AND PERSONAL AUTONOMY

64. Privacy

Personal information will be handled according to the Privacy Notice applicable to the relevant service and according to obligations actually applicable to the organization handling that information.

65. Sensitive Information

The Ministry recognizes the deeply personal nature of health information, financial information, identity information, private communications, biometric information, genetic information, and similar sensitive information.

Such information shall be treated according to the purposes for which it was legitimately obtained and applicable privacy obligations.

66. Bodily Integrity

The Ministry affirms bodily integrity, personal autonomy, individual dignity, informed consent, freedom of conscience, and individual responsibility in matters affecting one's body, health, and private health decisions.

The Ministry recognizes these principles as fundamental components of personal sovereignty, Natural Law, human dignity, and meaningful informed consent.

XVII. MEMBER CONDUCT

67. Peaceful Association

Members and visitors shall not knowingly use Ministry systems or resources for fraud, theft, threats, unlawful harassment, malicious impersonation, unauthorized intrusion, destruction of property, malware, deliberate interference with operations, or other materially abusive conduct.

68. Respect for Other Members

Private association depends upon mutual respect.

No person possesses a membership right to harass, threaten, defraud, stalk, intimidate, or intentionally interfere with the peaceful participation of another member.

69. Membership Suspension or Termination

SYRONA may suspend or terminate membership for material breach of the Membership Agreement or these Terms; fraud; abuse; threats; harassment; intentional disruption; unlawful misuse of Ministry property; unauthorized commercial exploitation; or other substantial conduct inconsistent with continued association.

Termination does not erase obligations or rights that accrued before termination or provisions intended by their nature to survive.

XVIII. PROTECTION AGAINST WRONGFUL CONDUCT

70. Fraud, Defamation, Abuse of Process, and Harassment

LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA reject fraud, intentional defamation, malicious prosecution, abuse of legal process, perjury, knowingly false reporting, coercion, unlawful harassment, and deliberate interference with lawful Ministry activities.

Where such conduct occurs, the Ministry and affected individuals reserve every lawful claim, defense, remedy, privilege, immunity, and protection available.

71. Remedies

Where another person unlawfully harms the Ministry, violates an enforceable agreement, infringes property rights, commits fraud, or otherwise causes legally cognizable injury, the affected party may seek any remedy actually available, including:

actual damages;

restitution;

injunctive relief;

equitable relief;

consequential damages where recoverable;

costs;

attorney fees where authorized;

specific performance where appropriate; and other lawful remedies.

The Ministry does not waive recovery merely because a particular category of damages or remedy has not been expressly identified in these Terms.

XIX. DISCLAIMERS AND RESPONSIBILITY

72. Educational Content

Educational and informational materials are provided in good faith but may address subjects on which research, interpretation, or knowledge develops over time.

The Ministry does not warrant that every educational statement will remain forever complete or uncontested.

73. Individual Responsibility

Each competent adult remains responsible for evaluating information and making personal decisions concerning participation, health practices, lifestyle choices, membership benefits, and use of Complimentary Member Provisions.

74. Misuse

The Ministry is not responsible for loss arising solely from deliberate misuse, unauthorized modification, disregard of clear safety instructions, or use materially inconsistent with instructions or warnings, except where responsibility cannot lawfully be limited.

XX. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

75. Limitation

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, LifeShield Health Co., SYRONA, and their respective ministers, managers, trustees, officers, fiduciaries, agents, contractors, affiliates, and representatives shall not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, punitive, exemplary, or consequential damages arising from membership, website access, educational content, services, or Complimentary Member Provisions where such limitation is lawfully enforceable.

Nothing in these Terms excludes liability that cannot lawfully be excluded.

76. Independent Third Parties

The Ministry is not responsible merely by association for acts or omissions of independent carriers, payment processors, banks, internet providers, manufacturers, governmental bodies, customs authorities, suppliers, or other separate entities.

Each entity remains responsible according to its own conduct, obligations, and agreements.

XXI. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

77. Good-Faith Resolution

Members and the Ministry agree that disputes arising from the membership relationship should first be addressed directly and in good faith whenever reasonably possible.

Written notice of a dispute should identify:

the parties involved;

the relevant membership or transaction;

the material facts;

the claimed breach or injury; and the remedy sought.

78. Private Resolution

The parties favor peaceful and private resolution before adversarial proceedings.

Where direct resolution is unsuccessful, the applicable Membership Agreement may require mediation, arbitration, or another private dispute-resolution method.

79. Mandatory Private Arbitration

As a condition of SYRONA membership, the member and the Ministry agree that any dispute, controversy, claim, disagreement, or cause of action arising out of or relating in any way to the membership relationship, these General Terms & Conditions, the Private Membership Agreement, membership payments, membership benefits, services, Complimentary Member Provisions, fulfillment, communications, representations, activities of the association, or dealings between the member and LifeShield Health Co. or SYRONA shall first be submitted to good-faith private resolution between the parties.

If the matter cannot be fully resolved through direct private resolution for any reason, the dispute shall be submitted to private binding arbitration rather than litigation in a public court, except to the extent that applicable law requires otherwise or temporary judicial relief is permitted under Section 80.

The agreement to arbitrate is intended to provide a private, efficient, impartial, and final method of resolving disputes while avoiding unnecessary public litigation.

Arbitration shall be conducted before a neutral private arbitrator mutually agreed upon by the parties. If the parties cannot agree upon an arbitrator within a reasonable period after a written demand for arbitration, an arbitrator may be selected through a mutually acceptable independent arbitration service or according to the applicable Private Membership Agreement.

The arbitrator shall be impartial and shall provide each party a reasonable opportunity to present relevant evidence, testimony, documents, arguments, defenses, and claims.

The arbitrator shall have authority to determine disputes concerning the interpretation, performance, breach, enforcement, applicability, and scope of these Terms and the membership relationship, including any matter properly submitted to arbitration.

The arbitration shall be conducted privately. The parties shall make reasonable efforts to preserve the confidentiality of arbitration submissions, testimony, documents, evidence, communications, proceedings, and awards, except to the extent disclosure is reasonably necessary to enforce an award, obtain professional advice, satisfy a lawful obligation, or protect a legal right.

Each party shall bear its own attorney fees, professional fees, travel expenses, preparation costs, and other individual costs unless the arbitrator determines that an award of fees or costs is authorized by an applicable agreement or law.

Arbitration fees and arbitrator compensation shall be allocated according to the applicable arbitration agreement, rules adopted for the proceeding, or determination of the arbitrator.

The arbitrator may award any individualized remedy properly available within the scope of the agreement and applicable law, including monetary damages, restitution, declaratory relief, equitable relief, injunctive relief, costs, or other appropriate relief.

The arbitrator's final award shall be binding upon the parties and may be entered, confirmed, or enforced in a court possessing proper jurisdiction where judicial enforcement becomes necessary.

The parties expressly agree that private arbitration is the agreed forum for final resolution of covered disputes when good-faith private resolution has failed, and that public litigation is not the parties' chosen forum for determining the merits of such disputes except where judicial involvement is necessary to enforce or support the arbitration process, where Section 80 applies, or where a matter cannot lawfully be resolved by arbitration.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the parties from voluntarily resolving a dispute at any point before a final arbitration award is entered.

80. Emergency Relief

Nothing prevents a party from seeking temporary or emergency relief where reasonably necessary to prevent imminent loss, protect confidential information, preserve property, prevent ongoing infringement, or protect another right requiring immediate intervention.

XXII. GOVERNING PRINCIPLES

81. Natural Law and Ministry Governance

Internally, LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA are governed according to their ecclesiastical principles, governing documents, private agreements, ministry purposes, and understanding of Natural Law.

The Ministry seeks to conduct its affairs according to voluntary association, informed consent, Truth, Love, responsibility, stewardship, peace, justice, individual dignity, and respect for rights.

82. Applicable Civil Questions

Nothing in these Terms shall constitute voluntary consent to jurisdiction that would not otherwise lawfully exist.

The Ministry reserves all questions and objections concerning jurisdiction, constitutional protection, religious liberty, ecclesiastical independence, statutory interpretation, contractual scope, due process, property, privacy, association, and other rights.

Peaceful cooperation with a governmental entity shall not be construed more broadly than the particular action requires.

XXIII. GOVERNMENTAL AND REGULATORY CONTACT

83. Peaceful and Professional Conduct Without Waiver of Rights

LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA intend to interact peacefully, honorably, professionally, and in good faith with public officials, courts, agencies, regulators, law-enforcement officers, and other governmental personnel.

Respectful interaction, cooperation, correspondence, response, appearance, compliance with process, or any other engagement with a governmental entity or representative shall never be construed as a waiver, surrender, abandonment, forfeiture, relinquishment, or diminishment of any right held by LifeShield Health Co., SYRONA, or their respective members or representatives.

The Ministry perpetually reserves all rights under all circumstances, whether or not a particular right is expressly asserted at the time, and no right shall be deemed waived knowingly, unknowingly, intentionally, unintentionally, expressly, implicitly, by silence, by omission, by mistake, by cooperation, or by participation in any governmental or regulatory process.

84. Reservation During Governmental Interaction

A filing, response, appearance, payment, registration, application, disclosure, correspondence, license, permit, or other interaction with a government body shall not constitute a general waiver of rights unrelated to the particular act.

The Ministry reserves the right to challenge governmental action through peaceful and lawful administrative, constitutional, judicial, legislative, equitable, or other appropriate means.

XXIV. LANGUAGE AND INTERPRETATION

85. Ordinary Meaning and Original Intent

These Terms shall be understood according to their text, context, defined terms, ordinary and reasonable meaning, and the original intent and purpose of LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA in adopting and communicating them.

Capitalization, punctuation, typography, spelling style, formatting, technical construction, semantic argument, isolated wording, or any other method of interpretation shall not be manipulated or used to create a materially different meaning, obligation, representation, or agreement from the meaning and original intent communicated by the document as a whole.

No provision shall be deliberately misconstrued, twisted, isolated from its context, or interpreted in a manner inconsistent with the original intent reasonably demonstrated by the language, structure, purpose, and context of these Terms.

86. Defined Terms

Where these Terms define a term, the stated definition governs the contractual use of that term between parties who have accepted these Terms.

87. Clerical Errors

An obvious typographical, grammatical, numbering, formatting, spelling, or other clerical error shall not invalidate an otherwise understandable provision.

Correction of a clerical error shall not be used retroactively to invent a materially different obligation.

XXV. NO WAIVER

88. Perpetual Preservation of Rights

LifeShield Health Co., SYRONA, and their respective members and representatives reserve all rights at all times.

No action, inaction, silence, delay, participation, cooperation, statement, omission, error, misunderstanding, lack of knowledge, failure to object, failure to assert a right, or other circumstance shall constitute or be construed as a waiver, surrender, abandonment, forfeiture, or relinquishment of any right.

No right shall be deemed waived knowingly or unknowingly, intentionally or unintentionally, expressly or implicitly.

The failure or delay in enforcing a provision on one occasion shall not prevent enforcement of that provision or any other right in another circumstance.

The enumeration of particular rights in these Terms shall not be construed to deny, diminish, waive, disparage, or surrender any other rights retained by LifeShield Health Co., SYRONA, or their respective members and representatives.

XXVI. SEVERABILITY

89. Severability

If a provision of these Terms is determined by a tribunal of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, the provision shall be enforced to the maximum lawful extent or severed where necessary.

The remaining provisions shall remain effective unless doing so would materially create an agreement fundamentally different from the agreement actually made.

XXVII. NO UNINTENDED THIRD-PARTY BENEFICIARIES

90. Parties

Unless expressly stated otherwise, these Terms govern the parties who accept or are otherwise legitimately subject to them.

They do not create enforcement rights in unrelated third parties.

XXVIII. ASSIGNMENT AND SUCCESSION

91. Ministry Administration

The Ministry may transfer particular administrative or operational responsibilities to a successor ministry structure, fiduciary, affiliate, or service provider where doing so does not improperly impair rights already accrued.

A member may not transfer a personal membership where membership is specific to that person's identity unless the applicable program permits transfer.

XXIX. MEMBERSHIP FULFILLMENT, OPERATIONAL CONTINUITY, AND MEMBER RESPONSIBILITIES

92. Membership Fulfillment Expectations, Promotional Offerings, Delays, and Chargebacks

Because LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA operate as a nonprofit ministry and Private Membership Association, the Ministry's budgeting, staffing, manufacturing, procurement, inventory planning, scheduling, and acquisition of raw materials are performed in reliance upon active membership orders and the reasonable expectation that members will honor the commitments they voluntarily undertake.

Accordingly, members understand and acknowledge that fulfillment of Complimentary Member Provisions is not guaranteed within any particular timeframe unless expressly stated in writing by the Ministry.

Members further acknowledge that reasonable delays may occur from time to time due to circumstances including, but not limited to, manufacturing schedules, production capacity, quality-control procedures, product development, raw material availability, supplier delays, laboratory testing, packaging requirements, inventory management, customs delays, carrier delays, force majeure events, seasonal demand, regulatory matters, or other operational circumstances affecting the Ministry or its suppliers.

Members also understand and acknowledge that pre-launch offerings, promotional campaigns, introductory releases, limited-edition offerings, crowdfunding-style launches, special events, new product introductions, and similar promotional or early-access programs are particularly likely to involve extended fulfillment timelines due to production scheduling, forecasting, procurement of raw materials, manufacturing lead times, packaging preparation, quality assurance, and other operational requirements. Participation in such offerings constitutes acknowledgment and acceptance that fulfillment may reasonably require additional time beyond ordinary fulfillment expectations.

The member agrees that reasonable fulfillment delays, standing alone, shall not constitute a breach of the Membership Agreement or these Terms and shall not serve as a basis for initiating a payment dispute, chargeback, or other attempt to reverse a membership payment.

Members experiencing a fulfillment delay agree to first contact SYRONA and provide the Ministry a reasonable opportunity to investigate the matter, communicate available information, and resolve the issue in good faith before initiating any payment dispute or chargeback.

Because chargebacks impose substantial administrative expenses, payment processor penalties, banking fees, operational disruption, increased processing costs, reputational harm, and financial burdens upon the Ministry and, indirectly, upon its membership as a whole, the member agrees that initiating a chargeback without first making a good-faith effort to resolve the matter directly with SYRONA constitutes a material breach of the Membership Agreement.

Where a chargeback is initiated and later determined to have been improper, unwarranted, or otherwise inconsistent with these Terms or the Membership Agreement, the member shall remain responsible for the original membership obligation together with all actual chargeback fees, payment processor assessments, banking fees, administrative expenses, collection costs, arbitration costs, attorney fees where recoverable, and all other actual costs reasonably incurred by the Ministry in responding to or resolving the chargeback.

The Ministry reserves the right to immediately suspend or permanently terminate the membership of any person who initiates an improper or unwarranted chargeback in violation of these Terms or the Membership Agreement.

A person whose membership has been permanently terminated under this Section shall not be eligible to obtain future membership through the use of another name, mailing address, email address, telephone number, payment method, business entity, or other identifying information for the purpose of circumventing such termination. The Ministry reserves the right to investigate reasonable evidence of such circumvention and may immediately terminate any membership determined to have been established for that purpose.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Ministry may, in its sole discretion, elect to reinstate a previously terminated member upon such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate, including reimbursement of all outstanding membership obligations, chargeback fees, payment processor assessments, administrative expenses, and other actual costs incurred by the Ministry as a result of the chargeback.

XXX. NOTICES AND CONTACT

93. Addresses

An address published by LifeShield Health Co., SYRONA, or an affiliated entity may be a correspondence, mailing, registered, administrative, or fulfillment address.

Publication of an address does not represent that it is the residence of a member, minister, manager, trustee, officer, or agent, nor that all Ministry activities are conducted from that address.

94. Electronic Communications

Where a member provides an email address, telephone number, account portal, or other electronic means of communication, the Ministry may use reasonable electronic communications to administer membership, provide notices, send fulfillment information, and respond to inquiries subject to applicable communications and privacy requirements.

XXXI. PRIVACY NOTICE

95. Privacy Notice Incorporated

The SYRONA and LifeShield Health Co. Privacy Notice, as applicable to the particular service or entity handling personal information, is incorporated into these Terms by reference.

The Privacy Notice governs collection, use, disclosure, retention, security, cookies, tracking technologies, privacy requests, and other matters concerning personal information within its scope.

XXXII. SHIPPING & FULFILLMENT POLICY

96. Incorporated Policy

The Shipping & Fulfillment Policy applicable at the time a Complimentary Member Provision is requested or fulfilled is incorporated by reference.

Where a provision of that policy specifically addresses shipping or fulfillment, the more specific provision governs that issue.

XXXIII. REFUND & GUARANTEE POLICY

97. Incorporated Policy

The Refund & Guarantee Policy applicable to the relevant membership transaction is incorporated by reference.

The applicable policy governs eligibility, time periods, refund amounts, exclusions, processing, cancellation, and any special guarantee made in connection with that membership.

XXXIV. PRIVATE MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT

98. Incorporated Membership Agreement

Each SYRONA member is subject to the Private Membership Agreement accepted in connection with membership.

The Private Membership Agreement governs the private associational relationship between the member and SYRONA.

These General Terms supplement that agreement.

Where the Membership Agreement contains a more specific term concerning an internal membership matter, the more specific provision controls unless otherwise stated.

XXXV. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

99. Contractual Documents

These Terms, together with the Private Membership Agreement and other documents expressly incorporated into the applicable relationship, constitute the governing agreement concerning their respective subject matter.

An informal statement, podcast, interview, educational discussion, social-media post, testimonial, customer-service conversation, or statement by an unauthorized third party does not amend these Terms unless the Ministry expressly adopts the amendment through an authorized agreement.

XXXVI. ORDER OF PRECEDENCE

100. Conflicting Terms

Where applicable documents contain inconsistent terms concerning the same matter, the following order shall generally govern:

1. a specifically negotiated written agreement executed by authorized parties;
2. a transaction-specific or program-specific agreement;
3. the Private Membership Agreement;
4. these General Terms & Conditions;
5. the Shipping & Fulfillment Policy;
6. the Refund & Guarantee Policy; and
7. other incorporated operational policies.

A more specific provision concerning the particular matter prevails over a general provision where necessary to harmonize the documents.

XXXVII. FINAL DECLARATION

101. Purpose

LifeShield Health Co. and SYRONA exist to serve, educate, research, create, associate, fellowship, and advance their ministry in support of the flourishing of humanity according to the principles of Truth, Love, freedom, responsibility, stewardship, informed consent, peace, and respect for the inherent dignity of the individual.

We affirm that the most fundamental rights of humanity do not come into existence merely because they are recognized by governments or reduced to writing in constitutions, declarations, statutes, judicial decisions, or other legal instruments.

Rather, the Ministry understands the most fundamental rights of humanity as inherent in living men and women by virtue of their existence, originating ultimately in the Creator and Natural Law rather than from any government, corporation, statute, charter, or other artificial legal construct.

Constitutions, declarations, statutes, judicial decisions, and other written instruments may recognize, define, preserve, or protect certain rights, but they do not create the inherent rights that preexist them.

We likewise affirm that liberty and responsibility are inseparable.

The freedom we claim for ourselves is the same freedom we recognize in others.

We seek no authority to dominate peaceful people, compel another person's conscience, confiscate another person's property without right, control another person's body, silence another person's sincerely held beliefs, or deprive another individual of equal dignity, liberty, or justice.

We ask only the same respect in return.

Our assertion of private association is not a declaration of hostility toward the world outside the association. Rather, it is an affirmation that free people possess the natural right to associate voluntarily around shared spiritual, educational, health, philosophical, charitable, and personal purposes.

Our assertion of ministry is not a marketing label. LifeShield Health Co. exists for a sincere spiritual and ministerial purpose, and SYRONA exists as its private membership arm and ministry auxiliary through which members participate in substantial portions of that mission.

Our membership structure is likewise genuine and substantive. SYRONA members voluntarily obtain membership, participate in the association, receive the services, benefits, and opportunities associated with that membership, and may receive Complimentary Member Provisions furnished as benefits of membership.

Those Complimentary Member Provisions are provided within the membership relationship and are not separately sold by SYRONA to members as ordinary retail merchandise merely because membership levels, benefits, credits, or eligibility determine which provisions a member may receive.

We honor agreements voluntarily made and entered into through informed consent.

We reject fraud, coercion, theft, violence, trespass, deliberate deception, abuse, exploitation, and domination, whether committed by an individual, private organization, or public institution.

We affirm Natural Law, freedom of conscience, private association, religious liberty, bodily integrity, private property, due process, the constitutional protections of the people, and all rights retained by the people under the Constitution of the United States, with particular emphasis on the Ninth Amendment's recognition that the enumeration of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

Nothing contained in these Terms shall be construed as a waiver, surrender, abandonment, forfeiture, or relinquishment of any right, remedy, defense, privilege, immunity, protection, or jurisdiction held by LifeShield Health Co., SYRONA, or their respective members or representatives. All such rights are expressly and perpetually reserved under all circumstances.

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.
